CONTEMPLATION

Remember that in body thine a God is dwelling there;
Thy Temple from pollution free let it forever be.
Offend thou not thy God in thee, indulging in man's lusts;
Moreover if tormenting self thou groanest foolishly.
God has descended just to see the world with eyes of thine,
Then breathe on Him with senses pure, the Breath of Sacrifice.
It's He in thee, that sees, feels, thinks, and speaks by day and night.
Be thus in all thou dost see, feel, think, speak—divinely bright.

We all admire a man who says what he thinks—as long as he says it about other people.

American Beasts in Germany

By Carrol Binder in Minneapolis Tribune

In Nazi Germany certain people wore a yellow star on their left breast; in the American zone of occupied Germany certain people wear arm bands. Both emblems signify untouchability. Hitler made the Jews wear the Star of David to warn other Germans to keep away. The U. S. Army has issued the newly arrived wives and daughters of American soldiers arm bands inscribed with small American flags to warn other American soldiers against molesting them.

It may surprise Americans at home to learn that many GIs abroad behave so shockingly that American wives must be thus protected from wolf calls, pawings and more brazen insults. But the situation is so bad that some Americans have even been afraid to have their wives come overseas. The indignities showered upon women—in broad daylight on principal thoroughfares of highly civilized communities—by some of our soldiers have prejudiced many Europeans against Americans as a whole. Instead of remembering our troops' valor and generosity, they are more likely to remember their ugly behavior.

The arm band is an attempt to make Germany safe for American women, but our prestige will not be restored until the U. S. Army makes Germany— and all Europe— safe for decent women of all nationalities.

GI LOOTERS IN FRANCE

Looting by our troops is a common joke in in the Army, but it is not at all amusing to shocked Allied peoples, whose homes often were left intact by the retreating Germans, only to be rifled by the triumphant Americans. When one old Frenchwoman returned to her ruined chateau, which both Americans and Germans had used, she broke into tears, sobbing, "Look what the filthy Boche did to my lovely home!"

American soldiers using the chateau did not dare tell her that retreating Germans had left it in fairly good shape. It was the Americans who had stolen almost everything moveable.

By such behavior, our Army has left behind it a trail of ill will that claims men are trying hard to eradicate. —Sat. Eve. Post.

U. S. SAILORS' OBSCENE DANCE ROUSES COPENHAGEN

COPENHAGEN,—Under a front page headline reading "Indecency in Front of Spectators," the conservative Nationaltidende protested against "shocking episodes" at a pier dance arranged in connection with an American naval visit here.

"Several of Copenhagen's fastest girls were among the guests on the pier last night," the paper said. "They behaved like hussies from harbor joints. Equipped with beer bottles they allowed themselves to be pawed by American sailors in front of thousands of spectators who felt ashamed to see Danish girls behave like that."

FRENCH OUTDID NAZI TORTURE, PAPER CHARGES

PARIS,—The newspaper L'Aube, owned by Francisque Gay, vice president in Georges Bidault's government, printed an article under the headline, "Frenchmen Superior to Nazi Teachers in Art of Torture." The article demanded speedy punishment of Vichy militiarmen, politicians, and other collaborators facing criminal charges. "It is a fact that French executioners were often worse than the Germans themselves," said the article. "An excess zeal prompted them to extreme cruelties. Witnesses testify to suffering worse torture at their hands than perpetrated by the Nazis at Dachau."

TRUMAN'S JEWISH PARTNER CALLS AT WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON, D. C.,—Edward Jacobson, President Truman's former haberdashery partner in Kansas City called at the White House.

He told the reporters afterward that his purpose was a discussion of the Palestine situation. Jacobson had with him Rabbi Arthur Lelyveld of New York, director of the Committee on Unity for Palestine, and Charles Kaplan, New York shirt manufacturer.

Jacobson told reporters that the rabbi wanted to "clear up" several things with the President respecting Palestine. Also, he reported that Mr. Truman is "all for getting the Jews out of central Europe right away."

As he departed, Jacobson, referring to his companions, remarked with a smile: "Kaplan sells shirts. I sell furnishings, and the rabbis sell notions."

CALLS FOR JEWISH REPUBLICAN ARMY

LOS ANGELES,—A militant address, calling for a Jewish Republican Army, even as an Irish Republican Army, to combat Great Britain's policy of strangulation of Jewish efforts toward liberation, was greeted with the greatest enthusiasm by an audience that filled Philharmonic Auditorium.

Speaking on the occasion of the Bikkurim Festival presented by the Labor Zionists under auspices of the Jewish National Fund, Rachelle S. Yarden, secretary of the World Christian Committee for Palestine, characterized the present epoch in history as one of demoralization, with little to be expected from world society through appeals on grounds of right or justice.

Riker's A Model Prison, But Road To It Is Not Always Just

Three Persecuted Christians Are Inter-Viewed; As Model Prisoners They Receive Good Treatment—Mertig-Elmhurst Out 26th

NEW YORK (Special) July 6,—Riker's Island was once the garbage dump and incinerator for New York City, whose odors were repulsive. Then the city decided to clean it up, omit the garbage and convert the island into a model prison for the city's minor offenders (guilty of misdemeanors).

For over ten years the place had been undergoing continuous improvements, until today, under the able supervision of Dr. Almaroso, Commissioner of Correction, the place is spic and span and, except for an occasional sight of barred windows, Riker's resembles a college campus more than a prison.

It was my pleasure to visit Riker's the other afternoon, for an interview with Messrs. Kurt Mertig, Ernest F. Elmhurst and Homer Maertz, the Christians who were sent to the Island by three Special Sessions judges without a jury trial, on a charge of "unlawfuul assembly," preferred by Isador Ginsberg, Queens leader of the Jewish War Veterans, who announces that he proposes to prosecute any person in New York who mentions the word "Jew" unfavorably.

RIKERS HARD TO REACH

Riker's Island is hard to reach, and then only on official business or with a visitor's permit. I travelled by subway, cab, ferry boat and bus and returned by bus, boat, street car and subway. There is no ferry to the Island nor bus thereon, as you are traveling as a guest of the city. Officials were very courteous: you register in and out at two different points. A colored official stamps his "O. K." on your pass.

You are ushered into an attractive, chapel-like room, with benches for at least fifty persons. In a few minutes, the three Christians appear and we are all seated for an interesting interview. We four are the only ones present. A guard looks in occasionally from the hallway.

"Well, boys, how are you treated?"

"We have no complaint," all chime in. "The confinement and injustice of our 'railroading' are our chief griefs."

"Do you get on well with the officials?" "No kick there," they reply. "We have been assigned work according to our educations and capabilities."

MAERTZ IN THE LIBRARY

Maertz of Chicago works as a librarian. One of his associate librarians is a Jewish prisoner. "We get along just fine," said Maertz.

The library would do credit to a small city, and all inmates are encouraged to use it. There are a number of trade schools, with paid teachers from the city: lectures: movies and radios, to instruct, uplift and entertain.

All three interviewees attend the educational features; and in their work hours, Messrs. Mertig and Elmhurst have been clerking in the commissary department.

There are chaplains of the three main religious faiths and these "clerics" are assiduous workers and popular with the inmates.

Although all the money which the city makes available for the commissary is used, there is some dissatisfaction with the quantity of the food for each inmate; but the interviewees themselves made no kick.

They looked well; wore no prison clothes, except the plain white shirts with the words "Riker's Island" stamped in letters one-half inch in depth.

The "Island" is at the head of Long Island sound and is swept by breezes at least ten degrees cooler than in the city. To outsiders it looks like a country club.

Nearly one-half the 1500 "guests" are colored!

Is "Henry George" Single-Tax A False Doctrine ?

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

Henry George wrote an inspiring book in the 1870's. His economic program might be worth trying in a new community only, and then only on a small scale. Industrial wealth today overshadows land wealth 100 times. I analyzed all the isms in my book "Standard Oil or The People" published in 1914. George studied the Labafundia of Italy where the few controlled the land.

Yours, HENRY K. KLEIN

THE "SINGLE-TAX" OF THE TOWNSEND PLAN

Dear Mr. Klein:

Your reply to my question whether you refer to Henry George when you state: "They have been fed on false doctrines such as communism socialism and single tax in order to confuse their minds and make straight thinking impossible", leaves us to assume that such was your intention.

But after making the criminal charge against Henry George and his single tax, that its purpose is to confuse and make straight thinking impossible, you state, in effect, that you don't know since "His economic program might be worth trying."

Is it your habit of charging people with criminal intent and defaming them, when all you can bring up in the line of proof is that "it might be worth trying". It this logic, evidence, or what is it?

I definitely asked to know because the Townsend Plan also advocates a "single-tax" to which your charges apply perfectly, namely a transaction tax.

Sincerely yours truly,

C. LEON de ARYAN

Deportation of Germans Seen As Greatest Crime

POPE SAYS VICTORS MUST NOT DO WHAT THEY DENOUNCED IN THE VANQUISHED

To the Editor of the Brooklyn Tablet:

Regarding the present war criminal proceedings, the Holy Father in his Christmas Eve allocution said pointedly, "Anyone, then, who exacts the expiation of crime through the just punishment of criminals because of their misdeeds should take good care not to do himself what he denounces in others as misdeeds or crimes."

OUTRAGING GERMAN WOMEN WORST UNOFFICIAL ATROCITY OF THE VICTORS

The most shocking mass atrocity in the history of Europe, is, of course, the violation of an estimated million German, Austrian, and Hungarian women, including nuns, by the Russians, which moved the Holy Father to lament "the base injuries and misadventures which German women and girls have had to suffer." But while this mass orgy against Christian women was committed without American protest, it did not have official American endorsement.

ALLIED EXPULSION OF MILLIONS OF GERMANS THE MOST ENORMOUS CRIME IN ALL HISTORY

To all humane persons the most abominable official, planned and approved Big Three atrocity has been the brutal expulsion and utter robbery of twelve million people, fathers, mothers, children, from Eastern Germany and the Sudeten land. As to vastness of scale, this makes all other recorded atrocities in the whole of human history look like minor league stuff. The previous world-shaking mass exodus, that of the Jews from Egypt under Moses, was "about six hundred thousand men on foot beside children" (Exodus, 12:38).

IF THE NAZIS HAD EXPELLED ALL BELGIANS FROM BELGIUM (WHICH THEY DIDN'T)!

To see how enormous a crime our expulsion of twelve million Germans and Sudetens is, let us mark how it would have looked to us if the Nazis had done something as big. If the Nazis, when they occupied Norway (2,937,000 people) and Belgium (8,386,553 people) had under pain of death ordered every last Norwegian, 2,937,000 of them, and every last Belgian, 8,366,553 of them, to get out of their country immediately, on foot, and to leave their homes, cattle, furniture, even their jewels and personal valuables behind as loot for the invaders, then the Nazis would have committed a large scale atrocity not quite as vast as that which the Big Three ordered at Potsdam and have since executed!

BIG THREE KNOW THAT EXPULSIONISTS DESERVE THE DEATH PENALTY

When the Allied leaders ordered such "a tragedy on a prodigious scale," as Churchill (1) has called it, some people might argue that these leaders, having perhaps been deprived of catechism training in their youth, did not know any better! But an AP Dispatch, dated Nuremberg, Jan. 16, shows that they know very well that the expulsion of peoples is a war crime deserving of the death penalty.

THE HOLY BIG THREE PROSECUTORS WANT TO HANG A NAZI WHO DEPORTED 60,000 JEWS FROM VIENNA

At Nuremberg, an American assistant prosecutor asked for the death penalty against Baldur von Schirach, leader of Hitler's youth movement, "for the deportation to Poland of 60,000 Vienna Jews." The American prosecutor charged that "as Nazi district leader of Vienna he had driven 'tens of thousands upon tens of thousands of Jews into the Ghetto of the East.' "

WHEN WILL THESE BIG THREE PROSECUTORS HANG THEMSELVES FOR DEPORTING 12,000,000 CHRISTIANS

Now what is to be done to the American, British, Russian statesmen who deported not merely tens and tens of thousands of peoples, but twelve millions of them — utterly robbed, starved, and drove them from their lands? Will these enormous war criminals be brought to book on this earth—or will their case wait until the Last Judgment?

1. In Missouri, March 5, 1946, he said, "The Russian-dominated Polish government has been encouraged to make enormous and wrongful inroads upon Germany, and mass expulsions of millions of Germans on a scale grievous and undreamed of are now taking place." Previously, British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, after seeing what the Allies were doing in Germany to "some 15 million German 'displaced persons,' " pillaged and driven from their homelands, exclaimed in Parliament, "I felt, my God, that is the price of man's stupidity . . . It was the most awful sight" (Time, Nov. 5, 1945). But so far Mr. Stalin, and Mr. Morgenthau, and Mr. Truman have not expressed any awe about it!

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

Your twenty dollar bill as an honorarium for printing my pamphlet, "Ravishing the Women of Conquered Europe," was a most pleasant and most assuredly a real surprise. From Weeklies one usually has enough to do getting a check for a first printing, let alone for reprinting. So I greatly appreciate your kindness and generosity.

Your reprinting really has helped me in many ways. A great many people have sent in requests for copies, stating they had seen it in the Broom. I believe more people have ordered copies from San Diego, proportionate to size, than from any other cities. To date, 43,000 copies of the pamphlet have been called for. Thanking you again very much.

The Reporter For The BROOM

By C. LEON de ARYAN

For 34 years I have been baffled by the fact that at each "Gahanbar" something happened to wound me deeply. As a student of Karma, of course, I know that I am doing something wrong whenever I get hurt. So for 36 years I have been watching to find out what in me was wrong. It is like when one had experienced the divine ecstacies of love's fulfillment and then is offered a substitute. It hurts. One always knows and is dissatisfied.

I remember when I first noticed, at 14, that Christmas did not have the charm and blessing it had had in my early childhood. So I decided to find out why. That, naturally, took me to the fulfillment of the true Christmas spirit and in 1919, in New York, in the studio apartment of a Mazdaznan friend, Dolly Chevrier, the Christ joined us and 4 more friends in the celebration of His birthday. Once you have lived in that presence you never again are satisfied with any other "atmosphere" during a "victory" celebration.

In 1920 Dolly and I received another "surprise" when during the "Gahanbar" I asked a question of Dr. Hanish which elicited a long lecture on the "divine atom", the ENTITY in our heart. I can still recite that lecture, word for word, it answered a most fundamental puzzle which we all must solve. But even then something was missing at the "Gahanbar".

Now, in Los Angeles, when the summer session of this year's semi-annual "Gahanbar" was held I decided to attend once more, perhaps for the last time in this life-span, but be sure to find out what was wrong.

A Gahanbar is a victory celebration. The children of Light are continually battling the devils of darkness; but naturally darkness cannot prevail, it is in the very nature of things. Twice a year, then, the armies of Light are supposed to congregate to celebrate their victories in the name of our Lord God Mazda, the Master of the universe. At such sessions we are to exchange information by which all may profit, learning to know the tactics of the adversaries and how to best offset them. And there lies the secret.

This year I had to be on the 2nd of July in L. A. at one of the court trials in the matter of "Christ's Church of the Golden Rule". So I arranged to attend that night at the Temple, 1159 So. Norton Ave.

The reporter for the BROOM enjoys an immunity peculiar to his calling. It is quite different when Kosti, in his private capacity, attends and when, instead, the reporter for the BROOM is assigned to "cover" a meeting. Our instructions were that this Gahanbar was not to be attended by Kosti, that he may not again be hurt needlessly, but that the devil-may-care reporter for the BROOM cover the gathering and then publish his observations. In this fashion, we were informed, he would find what was wrong, which Kosti had been unable to discover.

MOTHER FRIEDA AMMANN

Reporters are very hard-bitten fellows. They have seen so much of men's follies, nothing seems sacred to them. They dissect every person and every event to get at the facts and, generally speaking, regard all people as "suckers" of one variety or another. When going to a public gathering the reporter looks upon the crowd without the least feeling of awe, be it a political meeting, religious, or cultural. He is so used to humbug, pretense and hypocrisy, he always watches out. Hence, what Kosti might miss the reporter catches at first glance, automatically.

When I entered the meeting hall, at 8 PM on Tuesday, I noticed they had not started the services. The place was half empty and my favorite seat in the center of the last row was unoccupied. I took it and noticed Daddy Hooper in front. Since I have been addressing his San Francisco Mazdaznan gatherings, naturally, I went forward to welcome him "to our shores". I also noticed Frieda Ammann, but never having been "introduced" to her I returned to my seat.

After a while Elsie Hughett, from San Diego, opened the services. She looked straight at me when announcing that she was the only one present from San Diego. The reporter noted it immediately. It was the first cue why Kosti never felt at home. After some singing Elsie introduced a Jew who made a few cheap cracks, typical of his tribe, before rendering a piece on the piano that was so and so, for value. More ritual followed.

Then the "colored" lady and her white husband entertained the crowd; she accompanying on the piano his vocal solo. Some call it music. Again the reporter noted the factors which spoiled Kosti's enjoyment of a "Gahanbar". Bear in mind, the victorious children celebrate; hence there must be a victory and there must be victors. When it's the other way, a celebration dooms itself.

Fortunately Elsie, then, called upon Mother Frieda to speak who was the female head of the German association. Her helpmate, David, had passed on and she left Leipzig before Pearl Harbor- now resides on the association's estate at Norco. Mother Frieda is white-haired, deaf, skinny but not decrepit in bearing, intellect or spirit. She holds herself erect, too. She speaks with a strong German accent, mixing German words with her English. Since most of the audience are Germans or speak German, naturally, there is no lack of understanding ,even though the congregation was convulsed at times with the merriment at her substitution of words. For example, she related how in her "cell" at Norco, where she lives like in a "monastery" one evening she noticed birds flying out of her room. But upon closer inspection they turned out the be "Fledermice". She meant bats flew out of the Norco "belfry."

She explained that with age she enjoys life better, having her physical wants attended to, she is able to "receive" more understanding and discrimination in the spiritual values.

Mother Frieda is perhaps the oldest living pupil of Dr. Hanish. Her talk was not the sickening parroting of "the master said this and the master said that". She spoke from her own knowledge of the subject matter so that Kosti could come out of his retreat and enjoy the evening too. She talked much longer than Elsie had anticipated, thus cutting Elsie's time. I prayed she would keep it up and save us the boredom of having to listen to sublimated parroting of "what the master said".

Finally Mother Frieda sat down. Elsie read a very good paper from a lecture, by Dr. Hanish I suppose. The subject matter was splendid but she has a way of spoiling it by reading with an inflection and comment as if her audience were morons. While she might be a good judge of her kind, nevertheless, it always ruins the service for me.

After 10 o'clock, when everybody was waiting for the closing hymns, Elsie suddenly remembered the "colored" lady was programmed to give a double feature; vocal solo with self-accompaniment. So we had to endure a little more. Finally, when the collection was taken, my spirits rose; I had forgotten to be just the reporter and joined in the singing, put in my five bits in the basket and thereafter we pushed the chairs aside for the "ring around the rosy" where we line up in a circle giving the "double-cross" handshake. You grip the right hand with your right, and left with your left, of the person opposite, that, then, is done by both crossing your wrists. Hence the "double-cross": most approriate, too.

THE "SURPRISE" PACKAGE

At the shaking usually Kosti has been badly hurt. You see, it is supposed to be the crowning event where you express your love, flesh touching flesh and loving eyes reassuring one another of divine fealty. Thus, to avoid being hurt during the "double-cross", Kosti gave way again to the reporter. But Daddy Hooper caught me at it. He chided my perfunctorily limp and lifeless handshake and reminded me of the original purpose. And then the miracle happened.

IN MEMORIAM

CECIL THOMPSON

The Vegetarian Cafeteria and Bakery in San Diego is mourning the sudden passing of its owner, Cecil Thompson, who left peacefully in his sleep while visiting in Perry, N. Y., on Friday night, July 5.

He is leaving a widow, Alpha B. Thompson and 3 children: Barbara, Ann and Sgt. Robert Thompson.

A Seventh Day Adventist, Mr. Thompson has conducted the Vegetarian Cafeteria & Bakery at 1125 Sixth Ave., for almost 20 years. Los Angeles and San Francisco closed down their Seventh Day Adventist cafeterias and just prior to the war Mr. Thompson had his head full of worries to prevent a similar fate in San Diego. But with the help of his wife and faithful employees he succeeded to weather the worst and saved San Diego followers of the bloodless diet a place where they can get decent food at reasonable prices.

Of course, by the time you read this, the funeral services have been held.

While the cafeteria business is continuing and, under the rules of his faith, we are not to sorrow for his leaving this war-torn world for realms where men don't kill to live; nevertheless this sudden passing of a man who succeeded in carrying out his mission where others, in other cities, could not stand the commercial pressure against them, leaves us with a sense of great loss and reminds us of the higher values of life. A life well lived, in service to God and Man, is in itself a greater reward than one in the rush for Mammon.

May his example encourage his family and associates in the business to carry on where he left it to their care. The Vegetarian without the face of Cecil Thompson will feel strange to us old timers.

Truth Protects the Aryan

My Dear Mr. de Aryan:

Leaders of public opinion have always been considered a little cracked, even though they were sincere patriots and intellectual geniuses. You and I both are in this class. You follow the law of Karma, while I take my law from the genius, Thomas Paine, who put the winning spirit in the American Revolution by writing his pamphlet, COMMON SENSE. HE spoke truth when he advised his fellowmen that God gives us his message in the beautiful creation around us. FOR ALL TO SEE! There is NO lie in the uniformity of Creation. ALL is TRUTH in HER production!

YOUR answer to a letter of some woman's query in last week's BROOM, was a masterpiece. You let her know, in no uncertain terms, that a person, who sees no wrong in the mixing of the white and colored races, had lost all sence of balance, and had become a victim of Sanhedrin propaganda, designed to destroy all Christians and do away with all belief in an omnipotent God. YOU let HER know that the White Race is the ONLY hope for preserving civilization . . . as WE know it.

YOU may not realize it, but YOU have done wonders in preserving OUR great Caucasian Race. You have waked people up who would sleep forever . . . except for your writings. YOU deserve credit for leading the parade against our enemies . . . the members of the anti-Christ organizations.

The battle is now going into the really interesting stage, and I know that you are going to get great satisfaction from the fact that you have been predicting all these things for several years now. OUR enemies are going to find out that WE have been wise enough, all these years, to wage our battle on NATURAL principles; principles based on God's natural order of things. Let THEM study these principles . . . and WEEP!

Your faithful fighting Nordic,

The Sanhedrin Produced World Destruction

By HENRY H. KLEIN

(Copyright 1945 by Henry H. Klein)

(Now that the worst world war is over, it is well to know who caused it and why. For that reason I have written this article—Henry H. Klein.)

(Concluded from last week)

From the time I appeared as counsel for one of the defendants in the so-called sedition trial, I have been a target for Jewish animosity, stirred up by Sanhedrin agents. Jewish newspapers and periodicals called me a Jew hater and Jew baiter and branded me anti-Jewish. They even falsified my career of sixty-six years of which all but the first two years were spent in New York City, and blackened me so much that I received dozens of threats by mail, telephone and telegraph. One Jewish woman in Brooklyn wrote that she would like to cut my throat and one of the alleged leading Jews wrote me from the Waldorf-Astoria hotel in New York City, that I have already been "provided for." I put the text of that letter into the record of the court in Washington.

Not only was I threatened, but three attempts were made to knock me off physically during the past two years and many attempts were made to poison me. So heartless are Sanhedrin edicts that members of my own family were forbidden to have social intercourse with me though I raised them from childhood. This edict is in accordance with Protocol 17, a few lines of which, read as follows: "Just as nowadays (50 years ago) our brethren are obliged at their own risk ,to denounce to the Kahal, apostates of their own family, or members who have been noticed doing anything in opposition to the kahal, so in our kingdom over all the world it will be obligatory for all our subjects to observe the duty of service to the state in this direction." (Hitler was only an imitator). The word Kahal is Kehillah in Hebrew. It is the local branch of the Sanhedrin in every community where the Jews live, through which they are controlled without their knowledge.

Not only was I threatened with death and ostracized from my family, but I was even read out of the Jewish ranks by such self important Jews as Rabbi Stethen S. Wise in New York City and by others who presume to "own" the Jews. Wise even read me out of the Jewish "party" (he is an active politician) and his weekly publication "Congress Weekly" owned by the American Jewish Congress, published an article characterizing me as a "modern renegade" like Johann Pfefferkorn who, a few hundred years ago, according to the article, became a Christian and "betrayed Jewish secrets." I didn't know that Jews had any secrets. I thought everything was open and above board. If these "secrets" are the Protocols, then I can understand. At any rate, I am suing Wise and the Congress and Jewish and English newspapers for libel and may find out what these secrets are. One thing I found out and that is that Judaism and Zionism are being worked as rackets by professional Jews and some Christians. Naturally I became a target when I interfered with their graft. Political zionism has superseded spiritual and cultural zionism and has produced large sums of money for those manipulating it. What has become of all this wealth? The Protocols say that in two days we can produce enough gold for any purpose.

There is something sinister about all this pro-Jewish publicity. It was not anticipated by sincere zionists that zionism would hide a plot for world control by a handful. That was not thought of by those who favored Palestine as a home land for Jews who wanted to live there. That was the ideal of zionists, but the movement has gone far beyond that stage. It is definitely linked with the Sanhedrin plot to rule the world. The Balfour declaration in 1917 did not contemplate the creation of a Jewish nation in Palestine. It says that Great Britain looks with favor on the establishment of a homeland for Jews there. Any further attempt to set up a Jewish nation in Palestine will no doubt meet violent resistance from the Arabs there who consider themselves the inheritors of that country, particularly since their self-determination and protection were guaranteed by Great Britain in 1915.

Hundreds of millions of dollars have been collected from Jews throughout the world for Palestine during the past fifty years. What has become of this vast sum? Some of it has been spent for land and construction there; some for overhead; some for private purposes; a large part of it for propaganda to keep the agitation alive and the golden stream flowing and some of it went in graft. "Back to Zion" is a magic slogan among Jews and the Dead Sea in Palestine is the magic spot that will produce the Golconda of wealth that will further reinforce the efforts towards world rulership.

The value of the minerals in the Dead Sea is estimated in trillions of dollars. Some of it is already being extracted by leading zionists and others.

The Sanhedrin believes in force. The Protocols say that force rules the world. The atomic bomb is the acme of force. Is it the symbol of Sanhedrin power? Will the plan of the Sanhedrin succeed? Jews have been sold on the idea that they are the chosen people. Chosen for what?—to lead the world to destruction? So far, the Jews have themselves been led to destruction. Is the Sanhedrin the mad Pied Piper leading the Jews to extinction? Two thousand years ago, Sanhedrin corruption and criminality led the Jews to destruction by the Romans. Regeneration came after years later through Jesus. Regeneration will come again when Jews, Christians and Arabs realize that they are of the same flesh and blood and that they have been brought on this earth not to destroy one another, but to live in peace and happiness.

CHATS WITH GLADYS

"Honi Soit Qui Mal Y Pense"

LAW OF KARMA EXPLAINS EUROPE'S RAPE

"Kosti," asked Gladys, "now that you told us how you and Bell get your orders from the Invisible Ones who constitute the divine hierarchy that rules over us all and looks after us, what explanation is there for the conditions in Europe where American, British and French troops simply requisition the homes of people and throw them out in the cold, to die even, while the troops enjoy the comforts?"

"That is not hard to explain scientifically and correctly if one is able to think straight. But what you say about the Allies is mild compared to the way the Russian troops simply take what they want, murder all who resist and rape every girl child as well as women up into the eighties, not once but all the time."

"Now, why do the Invisible Ones not interfere, Kosti? It would seem that God does not want such things to happen."

"Such notions of what God wants and why the Elohim should interfere, are too childish for us to entertain, dear Gladys. I realize you are merely reflecting the usual questions asked by the mass steeped in deadly ignorance, for you personally know better, and so I shall outline the functions of the Holy Ones that there be no misunderstanding, then the rest becomes self-evident."

"That is really the object of my questions. I am encountering them daily when people meet me and kid me about my hobnobbing with such 'superior' persons like 'Kosti' who have a special pipeline to the divine administration of the world. Now that Bell also admitted being under divine instructions when examined in court by Combs, there are two of you 'supermen' let loose here in southern California. Naturally they kid me to death when my friends meet me."

"Don't let that bother you. It's the price one pays for leading the parade which is so far advanced that the mass has lost contact. The explanations are simplicity itself. You could see it in a flash, it will take a little longer to outline it in terms the common people can understand."

"I know that there is no injustice in the world because of Karma, but when appearances deceive it is hard to reconcile what happens with the ideals one has about divine government. So much brutality going on now and so much treachery, even right here in the USA, how is it all possible under the rule of divine LOVE and Intelligence?"

"One word explains it all, Gladys: Freedom, of individual initiative and choice. The Invisible Ones only guarantee that you will get what you yourself initiate, thereafter it's your responsibility what you initiate. So to start with, as a people, or as nations, the people of Europe conceded the power of the state to draft young people into the army to make war, kill, pillage, waste, rape and conquer. Hence the Elohim can merely guarantee that what they set into motion reaches all who engage in it. That covers Europe."

"Does it mean that the USA will in the end wind up where Europe is today?"

"But naturally, what else are we doing? Have we not ruined Europe beyond what the Nazis, Tories and Communists could have done without us? Did we not supply the material and the men? Now, of course, we are already getting in the Newdeal the taste of our own medicine. And that is merely the foretaste."

"But, Kosti, what Europe has to endure at the hands of the Russians is worse than what any nation there ever did to others."

"Might be, but not worse than what everybody is doing to the animals. Are we not raping every cow to make her give more milk than she would under natural conditions if left to herself in freedom?"

"You mean that ?"

"Most assuredly! All the world is breeding animals not for their good but to exploit them. That is rape, because it is forced. So, this being the choice of the people themselves, the Elohim merely see to it that it works out to its ultimate reaction. Now the Russians treat the women of Europe exactly as the women themselves treat the female animals, they and their menfolks forcible breed them to bulls, boars, rams, etc. to profit by their pregnancy. Since mankind refuses to think and consider it has to learn by natural reflex the results of their own deeds."

" I can see what you say; it must be so. But could you not outline in more specific detail how the Invisible Ones arranged it that it works out automatically since they, of course, cannot engage in the brutalities that we initiate upon animals till the reaction catches up with us."

"Simplicity itself.If you put a car in reverse then when the power operates, the car backs. One would say that the Divine Ones merely make sure the physical law of mechanics operates, but it is up to us to set the gears forward or backward. If we run over someone the blame is ours. And so the Divine Rule guarantees that matter will execute the impulse implanted. If you shoot a bullet with a certain impulse it will proceed accordingly. If you record a lovely song the phonograph will repeat the music indefinitely. And so the animal takes up the prepared material from the plant, gives it its own peculiar characteristics, turns it into organs for specific purposes. Now if you kill the animal and embody their meat into your organism, naturally, the hog-impulse is still active in the meat, or will continue to react like a cow, or a bull, or be as stupid as a sheep and as helpless, besides there is the impulse of fear which the animal left as the last reflex when you killed it. The fear of you, the realization of your treachery. All these impulses continue to work. The duty the Elohim is to see that matter executes to the end the impulse implanted. If not, the suns would not rotate the planetary systems in their orbits, the atom would not resist all intrusion, there would be no laws of physics or chemistry. The records would not sound the music implanted, etc."

"So you mean, people filled with dead matter of animals do not think like pure, true human beings, but are confused by the various impulses recorded in the dead meat of the animals they murdered?"

"Such is the case, dear Gladys. What we sow that we reap, hence everywhere you see that as to civilization there is none. Treachery distrust, fear, violence, despair in purity, integrity, even in God, prevails, because God dwells only in temples that are free from violence. There can be no happiness, no divine joy in bodies composed of murdered animals. But no matter how often we tell people that they refuse to listen. Now they are giving themselves a practical demonstration of where it leads them when they desecrate their temples and make them morgues and living sepulchres, painted nicely from the outside but rottening within."

"You are not taking a crack at painted women, are you?"

"Don't be blind, and dumb, my dear. Healthy females are more attractive to males when they are natural. But when they have to paint like Indians on the warpath, they demonstrate their savage nature which destroys beauty and color."

A. J. May, Great War-"Patroit"

WASHINGTON,—The Senate war investigating committee was told that Representative May, Dem., Kentucky, chairman of the House military committee, asked the Army to help a group of Illinois concerns obtain war contracts.

May's name was mentioned after Senator Ferguson, Rep., Michigan, asked if any "political pressure" had been used in connection with the contracts.

Fred W. Renwick Jr., former chief of the legal division in the Chicago Ordnance district, read into a record a transcription of a telephone conservation he said was between May and Major General L. G. Campbell, then chief of ordnance.

Renwick previously testified that the "boys" in the Chicago office were "thoroughly burned up" because Henry Garsson "obviously had applied pressure" in Washington in complaining about his dealings with the Chicago office.

Garsson is an official in several of 19 closely linked Illinois concerns now under investigation by the committee. Earlier, Chairman Mead, Dem., New York, called it "war profiteering" when he heard testimony that four of the company officials had voted themselves salaries totaling $1,380,120 for a three and one-half period.

JEWISH NAMES

A. B. Gellman, $505,709; Joseph T. Weiss, $484,705; Henry M. Garsson, $228,000; Murray W. Garsson, $161,666.

Edward Schaffer, an accountant of the government's general accounting office, testified advances totaling $48,634 were made to the Cumberland Lumber Co. by two companies in the 19-firm combine.

He identified checks made out to Cumberland, one of which was indorsed by "A. J. May president". Schaffer said no lumber ever was delivered, so far as he could determine.

$30.000 CASH ADVANCES

Schaffer testified that during an examination of the Erie Co. records at the request of the investigating committee he had determined that a total of $30,000 in cash advances, first made to Dr. Henry Garsson and Murray Garsson of the company, was charged to purchase of lumber from the Cumberland Co.

Invoices from the Cumberland Co. totaled $3156.47 more than the amount of the advances, and a check for that amount was issued by the Erie Co. to Cumberland, the witness said. He produced the check and said it bore the indorsements "Cumberland Lumber Co. by A. J. May" and "A. J. May."

He testified that the check was cashed at the First National bank of Prestonburg, Ky.

TIED TO ARMS FIRMS

Schaffer said his investigations of the munitions combine in which Dr. Henry Garsson was a prominent figure disclosed:

1—The Cumberland Lumber Co. was incorporated in Delware June 15, 1943, with Garsson as president and Joseph Freeman, Murray Garsson and Albert Levin as directors.

2—A certificate filed with the Kentucky secretary of state Aug. 5, 1943, designated Andrew J. May, Preston, Ky., as a company agent on whom processes might be served.

3—Two companies of Henry Farssons munitions combine—Batavia Metal Products, Inc., and Erie Basin Metal Products, Inc.,—advanced $48,634 to Cumberland in 1943 for lumber which was to be delivered later.

4—An examination of the records of the companies as of last April showed no lumber had been actually delivered.

When One Loves the Jews

Dear Sir:

While reading "Chats With Gladys" the following thought came to me. We love (as we love our children) Jews, Japs, Russians, Germans (even the members of the Sanhedrin) etc., by not allowing them to perform acts that will lead them into wrong ways and resultant suffering. Maybe it is necessary to chastize them for seeming insignificant acts but thru love we forsee dire consequences (witness what happened to the Jews in Germany—the same can and may happen to the Jews in the U. S. A.) Causes of trouble always precede the effects, so by correcting the causes the effects are eliminated—yes, even before effects can appear. The Golden Rule is the answer to our problems, "but" it is first necessary to take power away from those ignorant enough to believe they can produce dangerous causes without suffering from the effects (witness the Germans, etc., of Europe).

"Rumor" has it that prior to world war II eighty per cent of property in Germany was purchased by Jews at the least downpayment possible, then by producing inflation complete payment was made with slight effort. Thereafter the German people were subjected to devious indignities. That at the present time all properties west of Fairfax (in Los Angeles) to the ocean is to be purchased with as little down payment as possible (those who do not have the cash have been informed where to get it). Also certain areas thru the city are likewise staked out for purchase in the same manner (by the Jews). Can we expect chaos? Someone with the knowhow should investigate and expose this move.

Where can one obtain copies of "The Sanhedrin Produced World Destruction" by Henry H. Klein? (I understand he is Jewish—it it true?)

Sincerely yours,— E. E. M.

Editor's Note: Klein is a Jewish crusader against Jewish rackets. His leaflets can be obtained from WOMEN'S VOICE, 537 So. Dearborn St., Room 537, Chicago, Illinois.

TOLERANCE FOR WHOM ?

Poultney Bigelow, in his book "The Borderland of Czar and Kaiser" (Harper 1904) at page 118, writes: "Said my friend to me: 'Wherever the Jew has control of the press—and that is saying a good deal—you find that he strenuously preaches tolerance, in order that he may profit by it. To read the articles by Jews in newspapers and reviews, one would suppose that the only truly liberal spirits today were the members of synagogues. If you will take my word for it—and I think I know what I am talking about—there is no church demonination that can be more narrow and relentless than that which governs the four or five millions of Jews who occupy both sides of the Russian frontier between the Baltic and the Black Sea."

—Dispatch.

In a poll on anti-Semitism in Fortune Magazine for February the word Jew was not mentioned by name. But to the question: Are there any organizations or groups of people in this country whom you think might be harmful to the future of this country unless they are curbed, 7,000,000 people answered yes, the Jews.

To the second question: Are there any groups of people who are trying to get ahead at the expense of people like you?—8,000,000 answered yes, the Jews.

An interesting side-light on the character of anti-vivisectionists is reported in the request of the National Canine Defense League of England to substitute convicted criminals in the Bikini atomic bomb test for dumb animals. The request, in our opinion, is based not so much on pity for dumb animals, as for contempt for the human being. Significantly enough it has been reported that the most sadistic of Nazi tortures were extremely solicitious about their pet animals. —B'nai B'rith Messenger.

NEW DEAL PROFITEERS

The Senate war investigating committee is looking into the records of a group of Illinois war plants which started with a shoestring and worked up to 78 million dollars in war contracts. At least two of the boys who shared the gravy were able to do so because of their New Deal connections and because they had the benevolent sponsorship of the New Deal.

The profiteering grew out of two war babies called Batavia Metal Products corporation and Erie Basin Metal Products company, which built up 14 subsidiaries. Sen. Mead, the committee chairman, himself a New Deal, stalwart, said that the corporate empire was built from paper and didn't start to expand until war contracts offered a means of drawing advances.

It developed that these contracts were thrown to the Batavia-Erie outfit with the help from no less influential a New Dealer that Chairman Andrew J. May of the house military affairs committee. The Kentucky congressman was disclosed to have telephoned the chief of army ordnance, who was sufficiently prudent to have made a record of the conservation, and told him, "These fellows are good friends of mine and have been very kind to me in the past, and I want to help them if I could."

Victims of Polio Recover Unaided

SAN FRANCISCO,—Striking proof that some people who get infantile paralysis recover spontaneously or even without calling a doctor was put on display before the American Medical Association.

The evidence was a series of microphotographs showing the regeneration of a nerve cell that had been almost destroyed by the disease. It was part of the scientific exhibit of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Taken by Dr. David Bodian, Dr. Kenneth F. Maxey and Dr. Howard A. Howe of Johns Hopkins University, the photos confirmed visually what researchers suspected but never had actually seen.

Polio researchers knew that many people have attacks of illness in which the onset resembles the onset of polio and that they recovered after a period of nausea, fever, pain and finally muscular weakness, but afterward there was no indisputable evidence that their illness was infantile paralysis. One of the things that clouded the picture was a widespread belief that nerve cells of the brain and spinal cord were incapable of regeneration.

The microphotos clinched the case. Doctors now have visible evidence to support the premise that the recoveries are real natural victories over infantile paralysis.

Exhibit figures show that the recoveries run as high as 75 per cent of the total number of infections.

CONGRESS GETS BILLS FOR JAPANESE EVACUATION CLAIM

WASHINGTON,—Legislation to permit Japanese evacuated from their West Coast homes during the war to collect damages from the government for their "heavy financial and property losses," has been introduced in both houses at the request of the U. S. Department of Interior. In letters to Speaker Sam Rayburn of the House, and Senator McKellar president protempore of the Senate, Secretary of the Interior J. A. Krug, urges passage of bills "as a matter of fairness and good conscience, and because these particular American citizens and law-abiding aliens have borne with patience and undefeated loyalty its unique burdens which this government has thrown upon them." The ACLU will actively support the bill.

Is Arthur (the Voice) Bell a Swindler ?

AN OPEN LETTER

To: ROBERT KENNY.....
Present Attorney General of the State of California, and Candidate for Governor of said State

From: ARTHUR L. BELL. . . . .
President and Sole Trustee of Christ's Church of The Golden Rule, (a non-profit, religious, California corporation)

Inasmuch as your employees have used as their excuse for attempting to destroy our Church-plant doubt, distrust and suspicion in the minds of our people, and scatter our membership—the ridiculous and slanderous statement that I have personally attempted to misappropriate part of the assets of this Church or that my wife is laying an unjust claim to monies which she loaned to the Church (even though these monies were used for purchase of properties long before the Church was incorporated or had any assets of its own), we have even gone so far as to offer to cancel outright these obligations of some hundreds of thousands of dollars to my wife, (who is not a member of the Church or in any way directly or indirectly associated with it and—for reasons which need not be discussed here—could not be because of other unalterable demands upon her time) . . . knowing that a very vital element of protection to the entire Church membership would thereby be taken from them, but feeling that it would be wiser to alter certain planned procedures regarding these funds and remove the pretended excuse for these attacks upon our Church by your employees than for our membership to enjoy the protection which would otherwise result from carrying out of our carefully prepared schedules of procedure. YOUR EMPLOYEES DIDN'T EVEN EXTEND THE COURTESY OF AN ANSWER!

In their attempt to destroy the confidence and trust of our people and the general public in my management of the Church's business as well as its ecclesiastical activities, as its sole Trustee, your employees have constantly claimed that their only excuse for attacking us was because they believed I was personally trying to misuse or misappropriate the resources of the Church, even though there was not so much as the slightest scintilla of evidence supporting such an accusation.

In fact, to the contrary, there has been a profit of over $1,000.00 per day, since the formation of the Church—up until the end of last year (a total of over $750,000.00)—directly and "exclusively" traceable to my personal selection and handling of certain real estate investments acquired by "interest free" borrowed funds from my wife, which has accrued to the benefit of this Church as the result of my management of its business, as well as ecclesiastical affairs.

In spite of this fact, on October 10, 1945, your employees had the presumption to accuse me of having been derelict in my duties and negligent of the Church's financial welfare! They even went so far as to accuse me of selling Church properties for the purpose of putting the revenues from such sales into my own pocket, knowing full well, from the records voluntarily made available to them, that every dollar of any properties disposed of since the formation of the Church, have been sued to pay off mortgages and strengthen the Church's financial position . . . knowing also that such procedures were in strict accordance with our policies which required that every effort be made to remove at least 85 per cent of the Church's financial obligations before Christmas of last year, and that to do so, we were disposing of certain properties no longer needed in our student minister training program—the increased values of which would pay off a large part of our mortgages and leave us virtually out of debt with some millions of dollars of valuable holdings, sufficient to carry out the training program of our student ministry and to rapidly and successfully advance the Christian teachings to which we have dedicated our lives.

Having had ample opportunity to verify the fact that my personal services to this Church have represented a value of over $1,000.00 a day towards its welfare and progress from the day of its inception, and that we had rigidly adhered to the policies of procedure enunciated in our Church's Charter and By-Laws, your employees, nevertheless—as a pretense for their attack upon our Church and its membership and as an excuse for raiding our resources, claimed that I was incompetent and unworthy to be entrusted with the responsibilities of Trusteeship of the very Church which I founded and built from nothing to a Church with some millions of dollars of resources in less than two years.

On the basis of these accusations, they were able to find a judge— more interested in politics than in justice and religious freedom—who consented to remove me as trustee and put in my place a political appointee whom none of our members had ever met, who knew nothing about our teachings and cared less, whose sole responsibility was to liquidate and dissipate our Church assets and to scatter our membership as quickly as possible.

This step was actually taken by your employees last October without granting me so much as one minute of hearing, or without permitting our membership even the slightest opportunity of electing a new trustee to protect their Church's resources as well as its teachings, and to guard the hundreds of thousands of dollars of assets—of real estate and personal belongings which they had themselves donated to the Church during the year of 1944—to be dedicated "exclusively" to the religious objectives of our Church and to be admisistered in accordance with the judgment and discretion of their own duly "elected" officers, not some politicial appointee who cared nothing about their welfare or the promulgation of our teachings.

Your employees actually dragged members of our people from their own homes out onto the sidewalks and into the gutters of the streets in front of their properties, and in some instances caused serious physical injuries, in their anxiety to take over our properties and disperse our people . . . .this, mind you, without so so much as the slightest effort to permit our people to elect new officers from their own ranks to take my place . . . in fact, your employees were in no way concerned over the desires of any of our Church associates, but had only one purpose in mind and that was to destroy our Church, raid its assets and take from our people their rights of religious freedom—the birthright of every American citizen.

This they would have succeeded in doing months ago had I not, on November 1st, 1945, thrown our Church into voluntary bankruptcy in order to come under the protection of the Federal courts and remove our affairs from the jurisdiction of California State officials whose abuse of the authority inherent in the powers of the Attorney General's office had compelled us to flee the jurisdiction of the California courts and seek protection under federal statutes and the Constitution and Bill of Rights of our Country .

We Work For Goods, But the New Deal Does Not Know it—Logic and Basic Economics—Strikes and Stupidity

By WASHINGTON ADAMS

WASHINGTON, June 30 (Special),— The trouble with Newdealism, Marxianism, Communism and all defective reasoning is that they start with a false premise—something which is not a fact. They build their argument upon either a false statement or an unjustifiable opinion.

If the New Deal had understood the basic facts of economics, they might not have wandered into the bogs of depression and war.

I wish now to state briefly the basic truths of economics, which I believe should be taught in every school and home:

FIRST—WE DO NOT WORK FOR MONEY, although we may think we do. WE REALLY WORK FOR GOODS, in this order (1) food, (2) clothing, (3) shelter, (4) perpetuation of our species, and (5) the luxuries of life and the gadgets of civilization.

MONEY is used chiefly as a means to distribute the goods of production, although it has secondary uses as a measure of value and obligation and as a storage of value for future use.

And so, with these great simple truths of economic science in mind, we take a great step forward in sound reasoning: THE MORE GOODS WE PRODUCE, THE MORE THERE WILL BE TO DIVIDE UP AMONG THE PEOPLE.

Wages are only a method or process of dividing the goods of production—the worker's share of the goods he helped to produce.

Where the production is small, the worker's share must correspondingly be small—the wage small.

This age-old economic truth exposes the fallacy of central government attempting to fix an identical wage for an entire continent, where the productions vary from State to State. It is a socialistic insanity.

If a wage-law could produce prosperity, why doesn't Chiang Kai Shek's government establish a $6 a day wage (American money) and suddenly lift China into the most prosperous nation on earth?

Well, it tried to do it by printing the money and putting it into circulation, but where money was paid out in excess of goods produced, they only begot inflation, as we are doing here.

Wage-money (or any kind of money) not backed by goods produced is always inflationary. You cannot cheat the law of arithmetic!

With all these great truths long known to economists (but not to the New Deal), what do we find here in America?

We find that for thirteen long years the stupid and venal .New Deal has been selling their moronic followers on the idea of striking for more money (that is, more goods) in exchange for shorter hours (that is, less goods produced).

In the New Deal's early years it seemed to have the nutty idea that the fewer goods we produced, the more there would be to divide up among the people; so they paid farmers NOT to grow corn, wheat, sugar cane and cotton, and actually paid out good debt-money for plowing under the crops and destroying the little pigs.

Teach the people these truths, and they will destroy the New Deal.

THE DEVIL'S ADVANCE AGENT

When religion gives aid and comfort to ignorance, arrogance, stupidity, and superstition, it becomes the Devil's advance agent, prompting a bigger Hell on earth, as a pawn in the hands of diabolical politicians.

—James Bryan

Observers in Washington realize that it would only take a telephone strike and a railroad strike to destroy America. People in the large cities would be starved and forced to go to the country for food. Farmers could not market crops. Crime would be rampant. No one would even be able to telephone a policeman, a doctor, or a fire station. Our nation has been within one-sixteenth of an inch of this chaotic circumstance this year.

The Communists have organized an underground terror squad in France. It is estimated that 30,000 anti-Communists have dissappeared in France his year. The same technique is being attempted in the United States.

Daphne takes a notion to visit her brother down in the country but I have to stay behind and attend those Senate hearings. I'm smiling superior-like the next morning at Daphne's last "you'll learn" look as I tackle breakfast. I put the coffee on, drop an egg into the teakettle.

"Three minutes," I grunt. "Now, the toast . . . "

I open the bread drawer. It's empty. "Where does Daphne keep the stuff?" I mumble, looking in the towel drawer, dish cupboard and mop closet.

"Now for the morning news," some happy announcer says, "brought to you by the Golden Bakers, makers of the Golden Loaf. Of course, if you can't find any Golden Loaves on your grocers' shelves today . . . "

I don't wait to see what he says I should do. For weeks I've been listening to millers testify how they can't compete with the government which pays 48 cents more a wheat bushel than they are allowed to pay. . . . and bakers telling us they'll have to close up shop because of no flour. So I push another button on the radio.

" . . . it is hoped that Mr. Vinson," says another syrup-voiced fellow "will be able to end the dissention which is raging among Supreme Court justices . . . "

That does it. I turn off the radio with so much steam that the handle comes off in my hand. I start announcing to myself:

"Feuding on a packed Supreme Court. Congress going eleventeen ways at once."

The coffee boils over. I toss pot and all in the sink.

" . . . The Administration operates a black market in wheat . . . "

I fish my 12-minute egg out of the kettle and toss it after the coffee pot, unplug the toaster, slam on my hat and head for the nearest restaurant.

"OK, Daphne, so I've learned," I mutter as I go out the door. "Couple of other people are going to learn, too, come November."

American haters of the Roosevelt ian ideal of democracy and what is left of it in the present administration in Washington need no translator of the down-right insult to President Truman in Bevin's speech in his refutation of the Anglo-American Commission's recommendation that 100,000 displaced Jews be admitted this year into Palestine.
